THE PINCHING SHOE

In our editorial for March we pointed out a few of the ills that effect Brisbane. The remarks were general and aimed at no one, but judging by subsequent comment they struck many. Since publication of the last issue we have been acclaimed by some readers and threatened with suit and mayhem by others. For this we simply say, "If the shoe fits, wear it. If it pinches, do away with it." The evils mentioned are general and apparent to all interested. We merely asked, "Do you want them continued, or do you want a change?" Perhaps, though, some of these statements could be enlarged upon for the benefit of those who read the article hastily, and for those who did not read it at all, but merely heard of it second-hand, and thereby got the wrong impression.

The majority of us selected Brisbane for our homes for the same reasons. We enjoy the suburban way of life, coupled with proximity to San Francisco, which makes for an ideal place to live. In this community there are chicken coops, rabbit hutches and cow pens which are a model of cleanliness and an outstanding example of people's desire to live in peace and accord with their neighbors. With them we take no exception;—on the contrary we salute them. Unfortunately the opposite is also to be found. When pets and livestock are allowed to become a nuisance to neighbors and a manace to the public health, we feel they should be suppressed. A fly crawling across a sleeping baby's face is not a pretty sight; The thought that its previous port of call might have been a filthy, unkempt shed does little to improve the picture.

On the subject of abandoned and unused chicken coops and cow sheds we quote, "An old unused wooden building standing in a field of dry grass is a fire hazard which extends to all surrounding structures." If anyone chooses to question this, the best we can do is to refer them to Chief Lou Terry of the Brisbane Fire Department and the departmental records. The listing of fire calls answered is irrefutable proof.

Cars and trucks which have been abandoned or junked on the public right of way not only obstruct our already too narrow streets but often create either a blind intersection, or force pedestrians to detour into the lane of oncoming traffic. Those which are junked, or becoming junk on private property on which they lie. They certainly detract from the value of adjoining property if for no other reason than by their proximity. When you bring friends to visit, do you like to drive through a junkyard before you reach your home? For their fire potentialities, we again refer you to

HOME TOWN FOLKS

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Stout of 312 Visitation Avenue were pleasantly surprised Saturday morning about 3 A. M. by the arrival of their youngest son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Asa E Stout and Mrs. Asa Stout's father Mr. Rex Maller, all of Greybull, Wyoming.

They drove out in Asa's car and left Monday morning in order to be back in Wyoming for the basketball tournaments which started the 12th.

Asa is still in a steel cast but is getting along fine now. Last September he was in a plane crash and received a very severe back injury; the vertebrae being broken perpendicular, which saved him from being paralyzed.

Their visit was short but was very much enjoyed.

Welcome home to Mrs. William Wipprecht. Mrs. Wipprecht and daughter Stphanie have been visiting in Salt Lake City with Mrs. Wipprecht's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Harvey, former residents of of Brisbane. Stephanie will stay with her grandparents for a while, but Mrs. Wipprecht returned to Brisbane (and Mr. W.) in time to celebrate Easter Sunday and the Wipprecht's 11th wedding anniversary which was also March 28.

Mr. Amos Kinney and son Richard left Brisbane Friday, March 13, to attend the funeral of Mr. Kinney's brother - in - law, Mr. Chester Logan of Miranda, Calif., who passed away at the age of ninety-six years.

Sympathy is extended to the family of Mr. Peter Poore, a resident of Brisbane since 1932 and a familiar figure to the people of this town who passed away on February 2, 1948.

Mr. Poore leaves a brother-in-law from San Francisco and a niece from Florida who came on to attend the funeral.

Interment was at Woodlawn Cemetery, February 5, 1948.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Stone spent two days recently traveling through Northern California. With them were Mr. and Mrs. "Ted" Stooone of Cheyenne, Wyoming, brother and sister-in-law of Louis. This trip terminated a visit in Brisbane before the couple left for home.

Michael V. Spencer of 400 Visitation Avenue, observed his first birthday March 3, by having measles. Michael was an incubator baby and weighed onl 4 lbs. at birth. To date his weight is normal for his age.

Mr. and Mrs. John Muzzy of 351 Mariposa Street, enjoyed a visit from their niece Mrs. Gloria Mackebon and baby. They flew in from Honolulu by United Airlines enroute to their new home in San Diego.

Mr. and Mrs. David Reed and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reed all of Brisbane spent an interesting and enjoyable two weeks entertaining their mother Mrr. J. D. Reed and sister Mrs. Pete Botch, both of Lincoln, Nebraska.

Chief Lou Terry.

The faults are there and it is for us to decide whether they are to be corrected or whether they are to remain. The men you elect to the police commission have the power and authority to enforce county ordinances and state laws which have already been enacted by our elected representatives. Whether they shall do so or not is up to the electorate of Brisbane.

Offered for your selection are the names of men who have already proven their knowledge and ability and have given freely of their time and personal funds to bring the Brisbane Police District into being and into present state of development. Under such supervision we are bound to improve and become a safer, healthier and better community.

Unfortunately, there is an element in our town which has opposed the formation of a police district from the beginning. Failing to revert its formation they have seen fit to nominate men to administer it. At the best, such men can but nullify the work already accomplished. If the reason lies deeper, we leave it to your imagination. Far be it from us to cry fire when none exists, but neither do we like living in "The Monte Carlo of the Peninsula."

TRAFFIC SQUAD

Wednesday March 17, 1948, 20 of the Brisbane Traffic Squad and 30 of the Bayshore Traffic Squad went to Visitation Valley school to learn how they ran their traffic squad.

The bus came at noon and we left about 12:05 p. m. We stopped at Bayshore to pick up their traffic squad.

We arrived at Visitation Valley school and there we met Mr. Robt. Moore, the Safety Director of the San Mateo County Schools, who introduced Officer Robert Greminger.

Officer Greminger told us about their traffic squad and showed us how they worked. On point he emphasized was that all traffic officers should remain on the sidewalk while on duty. He gave several other good pointers that would be of benefit to the Brisbane Traffic Squad.

The trip, as well as being educational, was very much enjoyed by all the boys, who wish to thank Miss Barry for making the trip possible.

It Happened in Maine

UP in Maine a motorist came across a lonely hut and interviewed the proprietor with a view to writing up the locality.

"Whose house is this?" he asked.

"Moggs."

"What in the world is it built of?"

"Logs."

"Any animals natural to the locality?"

"Frogs."

"What sort of soil have you?"

"Bogs."

"How about the climate?"

"Fogs."

"What do you live on chiefly?"

"Hogs."

"Have you any friends?"

"Dogs."

• Dead Men Don't Talk •

IN the tavern of a small Danish town, three men were discussing a gentleman who had died several years before. They all agreed that the deceased had been selfish, disagreeable, miserly, mean and even cruel.

A stranger interrupted. "I believe you're wrong," he observed quietly.

"The gentleman was kindly, courteous, lovable, thoughtful, generous."

"He was a friend of yours?"

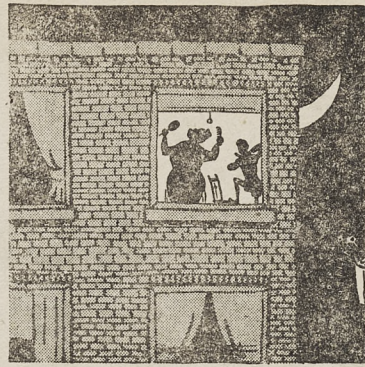

asked one, rather embarrassed.

"Oh, no. I never met him."

"But if you never met him" protested the man, "how do you know he possessed such splendid qualities?"

"I should know," replied the stranger. "I married his widow!"

MARRIED FOR MONEY

"Dear," said Mrs. Blake, "I think I'll appear in the charity show. What do you think people would say if I wore tights?"

Without looking up from his paper, Mr. Blake dourly replied: "They'd probably say I married you for your money."

"Press Release"

The United States government marks its press releases with the advance date of publication, and the more important ones carry an additional notation in red ink: "Confidential, Hold for Release."

From the department of agriculture one day arrived one of these red-inked dispatches, and the editors naturally took care to observe the release date.

At the proper time the item was published. It was a recipe for a new cake.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Allan Adams, 45 Inyo St. Saint Luke's hospital. 7 lbs. 14½ ozs. Both are doing fine.

Robert Tann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Tann of 73 San Benito Road was chosen by his fellow students as their representative to Boys' State at Sacramento this summer under the sponsorship of the American Legion Post No. 473. Congratulations Bob!

Sufferin' Cats

To the woman lecturer the rapt attention of the little man in the third row aisle seat was flattering, but a little disconcerting. She had learned from long experience that a listener sometimes weighs the words of a lecturer with extra care.

"For centuries," she railed, "women have been misjudged and mistreated. They have been enslaved, humiliated, exploited, ridiculed. They have suffered in a million different ways."

Suddenly the little man in the third row aisle seat challenged: "But there is one way, madam, in which women never have and never will suffer."

"And how is that, sir?" the speaker angrily demanded.

The little man surveyed the audience carefully and, making certain that he had their undivided attention, he replied: "They have never suffered in silence."

GOOD-NATURED COW

"I've got a cow I want to sell you, Charlie."

"Yes? Would she fit into my Guernsey herd?"

"No; I dunno as she would."

"Does she give lots of milk?"

"No; I can't say as she gives lots of milk, but I can tell you this: She's a kind, gentle, good natured old cow, and if she's got any milk she'll give it to you."

ADULT FOOTBALL LEAGUE

The Recreation Director, Eddie Davenport with the assistance of Lou Terry is trying to form an adult twilight softball league consisting of teams from organizations here in Brisbane. The league will be strictly for adults. The league if worked out according to schedule will consist of a regular round robin circle of play. Games will be played on Tuesday and Thursday evenings of each week starting at 7 P. M. and finishing by 8:30 P.M.

Entrance fee for each team will be $10.00; this to cover expense of balls and bats. All and every organization or group of men desiring to play are welcome to enter the league.

Mr. Davenport feels that this should be a huge success. It is an outlet for adult recreation which at the present time in Brisbane consists of very little.

The success of this league depends entirely on the adults of Brisbane. The recreation department can only go so far in the organizing of this league but can not insure its success without cooperation of the adults. For any information please feel free to contact the recreation director.

A tentative list of teams thus far consists of:

- Firemen
- Scout Committee
- American Legion
- U. F. W.
- Merchants' Association.
- Baptist Church
- Chamber of Commerce

DANCE CHAPERONS HELP WANTED ON

The teen-agers of Brisbane would like to have the help of some of Brisbane's adults in regards to chaperones for their dances. The recreation department requires at least 3 couples to chaperone each dance that is held at two week intervals. The dances are from 8 to 11 P. M. Chaperones are required only to be present and assist in making the dances a success. Chaperones are requested to join in on the dancing if so desired. Your individual help on this matter would assure the future success and continuation of the teen-age dances.

Thanking you,
Mr. Eddie Davenport
County Recreation Director
Brisbane, Calif.

A WORD OF THANKS

I personally would like to take this time and space to publicly thank each and every merchant, organization and individual, who has donated for the success of this event. It is a personal feeling of gratitude to know that there are so many wonderful people in one community. From the wonderful cooperation received, it is assuring to me that the people of Brisbane want and are willing to sacrifice for the benefit of recreation here in Brisbane. With all this assured me, I can promise all of you that I will do my utmost to insure the success of recreation at present and for the future.

Thanking you, each and every one,

Mr. Eddie Davenport,
County Recreation Director
Brisbane, California.

A small but enthusiastic crowd attended the Bingo Party given by the Legion Auxiliary and presided over by Mrs. Vera Blair on Saturday evening March 13, 1948.

The Wedding of Patricia Ann McHugh and William Arthur Riggot took place Friday at the Chapel of the Chimes, Oakland. The Rev. Robert W. Anderson performed the double ring ceremony before the lily decked altar. The bride, given in marriage by her father, John McHugh, wore a white brocade satin gown, fashioned with high, round neckline and long pointed sleeves. A fingertip veil completed her attire and she carried a shower bouquet of gardenias and bouvardia.

Mrs. Joseph Thompson, her sister's matron of honor, was in white taffeta and tulle and the bridesmaids, Florence McHugh and Imogene Moore were also in white taffeta and tulle. Their flowers were old fashioned bouquets of pink carnations. Little Marsha Thompson was flower girl and Reese Thompson was ringbearer.

Best man was Joseph Thompson and the ushers were Vincent Hughes and Don McCarter, college classmates of the bridegroom. Following the reception at the McHugh home, the couple left for a honeymoon of unknown locale.

BOY SCOUTS DRUM AND BUGLE CORPS

Much credit is due these days to two gentlemen by the names of George Brady and Dick Hasking. While using the recreation building every Tuesday night for practice, George and Dick have really developed a fine up and coming drum and bugle corp. They have both put much time and effort into teaching these boys and now have them really playing together fine. With this sort of effort by George and Dick and the ability of the boys, Brisbane is going to hear big things about the drum and bugle corps.

Members at present consist of the following:

Scott Hickman	Lloyd Isdahl
George Babbirk	Kenneth Walter
Darrel Chapman	Henry Edwards
M. Hoag	Bobby Williams
George Tann	Wally King
Donald Rose	Pat Hughes
Robt. Bolden	Donald Parrish
Paul Bolinger

We can expect big things from these boys but in the meantime let's give them a little praise so deserving them.

IN REGARDS TO RECREATION

To you citizens of Brisbane—

Mr. Eddie Davenport, Recreation Director, would like to pass on to you the following bits of information pertaining to recreation here in Brisbane.

The San Mateo County Planning Commission has now finished with the blue prints for beautifying the grounds of the Recreation Center. Included in the prints are the laying of three walks or approaches to the building. One to be put where the present gravel walk now stands and one each on both sides of the present gravel walk, to permit entrance from the front and both sides. Also the scraping and then filling in of the whole front of the building with a natural drain and grade level towards the present road. A fence along the whole front with machine guards to prevent driving in to the area where the children will be playing.

A parking area to be along the right side of the building and along the present fence.

A lawn or ice plants or something similar will be planted along the front of the building. These improvements are to be undertaken as soon as good weather is assured permitting.

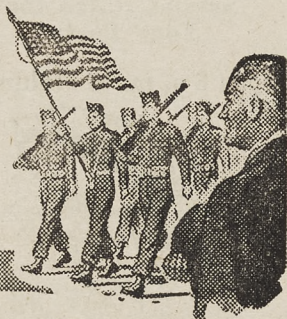

There are other improvements to be made if the money allotted us holds out.

Along with the beautifying of the grounds I am also trying to obtain some added facilities for the Center, such as, a tennis court, the fixing of our present so-called baseball field and the leveling of the present road with added width now being used as our basketball courts and future site of our tennis courts.

These improvements will give us something to be proud of as a start for our ever increasing recreation set-up here in Brisbane.

The recreation program in itself is now starting to move into high gear. With the boys' and girls' basketball and volley ball and a boxing team being formed we have now added a combined children's and adults' activity to our program in the form of folk dancing. Folk dancing is held every Wednesday night from 7:30 to 9:30 by a qualified instructor. Everyone from 9 to 90 is welcome and exceptions on age will be made if necessary. If you have never tried or participated in folk dancing you have been and are missing a lot of good clean fun. Our turnout of children so far has been fine but how about you adults coming down and participating. I personally will assure you of a good time for your effort and time put out.

BRISBANE RECREATION SPORT EVENT

The Recreation Director is planning and going ahead with plans for a Sports Event Day for all children of Brisbane from the ages of six to seventeen. The event is to take place on Saturday, the 3rd of April. Starting event will be at 10:00 A. M. and 4:00 P. M. will be the closing of events for the day. All events will be run off in age groups to insure fair competition for all. Some of the events include 50, 75, 100 yard dashes for all age groups for both boys and girls. Basketball free throws, Baseball throw for distance and Volleyball games. Each boy or girl can enter as many events as desired in his or her own age group. There will be prizes awarded for all events—popcorn, milk, chocolate milk, soda water and possibly ice cream and cookies will be given free to all children present. Many nice prizes will be awarded, so let's get all the children from 6 to 17 down here.

Much credit is due Mr. Lou Terry for his wonderful cooperation and work he has put into this event to insure its success.

All the merchants of Brisbane also deserve praise for their wonderful cooperation and donations of prizes given the recreation department for this event. Inciden-

JUVENILE DELINQUENCY

This is a subject that at the present time is constantly before us. We of the Recreation Department are constantly reminded of it, so in turn, we would like to pass on to you some of our suggestions for the preventing of it.

First of all we would like to impress on everyone this thought. "No child is born in this world a bad child." Children acquire the habits that make them bad in the process of growing up. They do this through the company they keep and through idleness that allows them time to think of and do the wrong things. Through these bad habits that always start small, they in turn get bigger as the child grows into manhood or womanhood whichever the case may be. Before we realize it and when it is too late to correct them we have some undesirables on our hands.

We in Recreation found out that by keeping the child constantly occupied in one activity or another the breaking down of delinquency is at its job. Through recreation of all types the child is constantly learning something. We feel this way because recreation is a fundamental human need, it is the chief occupation of the child, it is through play that the child attains growth and experience, recreation contributes to happiness, physical and mental health, character building, safety, economy and it helps build moral. These contributions through recreation help us build decent upstanding characters and not the undesirables. In all of this we are trying to impress on you parents of Brisbane, the need each and every parents' cooperation on this.

See that your child participates and when possible participate yourself and with the child. When you actually stop and give it some thought it is very little to be asking of the parents, so what do you say we start on it; not tomorrow or today, but now.

Thanking you all for seeing me through this far,

Mr. Eddie Davenport,
County Recreation Director,
Brisbane, Calif.

WOMEN'S CORNER

By GLORIA

Let others take the high road,
The low road or the far;
But I will take the side road
Where apple blossoms are.

Pertinent Paragraphs:

Women change their styles, but their designs remain the same.

If both sides make you laugh, you are broad minded.

Make it a rule of life never to regret and never to look back. Regret is an appalling waste of energy: you can't build on it; it's only good for wallowing in.

Kids:

Clerk: "Now see here, little girl, I can't spend the whole day showing you penny toys. Do you want the earth with a little red fence around it for one cent?"

Little Girl: "Let me see it."

Helpful Hints:

Drop a couple of lemon rinds in the boiling water in the bottom of your glass double boiler next time you use it, and instead of a scale forming, your pan will be clean and shining.

For those difficult large pieces that you want dyed, try dissolving the dye in the washing machine: even bedspreads can be swished to a lovely streakless shade this way.

If you like to play cards and are constantly bothered with loose ashtrays on the card table, try this: Cut notches shaped like upside-down keyholes near the tops of four small tin cans. Put a round-head screw into each table leg about 6 inches from the top, allowing it to stick out slightly. That's all. Just slip the cans, via their notches, over the screws. Before folding the table, remove, empty and store the cans for the next time. The cans may be painted or trimmed with Trimz for a decorative touch.

Recipes:

This little clipping from the L. H. Journal seems appropriate to head our recipe section:

Piecrust is like a wild animal; when it sees fear in the eyes of its tamer it goes out of control.

This cookie recipe is a favorite with children and grown-ups alike:

Toll House Oatmeals

1½ cup sifted flour
1 tsp soda
1 tsp salt
1 cup shortening
¾ cup brown sugar
¾ cup granulated sugar

2 eggs (unbeaten)
1 tsp hot water
1 cup meats or raisins
2 pkgs chocolate chips
1 tsp vanilla
2 cups oatmeal

Sift flour once before measuring, then sift with soda and salt. Cream shortening and add sugars gradually, creaming until light. Add eggs one at a time, beating well. Add hot water to creamed mixture then add sifted dry ingredients. Add nut meats or raisins, chocolate chips and oatmeal, and mix well. Add vanilla and blend. Drop by ½ tsp on greased cookie sheet. Bake at 375 degrees F. 8 minutes. Makes about 100 cookies.

Not that I loved you less,
when long ago

We roamed the moon-entangled woods of May,

And arm-in-arm, looked down
the clear, sweet way

We vowed to walk in love's perennial glow.

But when whole golden words
I could not know

Were locked within you—
and what voice could say

How years would open radiant halls, which lay

In light and kindness whence all blessings flow.

Yet with the waning seasons
I have known

A beauty even your loveliest girlish eyes

Could not reveal; and, though our spring be past,

I smile beneath the Summer's copious green,

Finding a rarer flame in noonday skies

Than the star-haunted trysting meadows cast.

The students of the Brisbane school spent a tense and exciting half hour listening to the final spelldown on Friday, morning March 19, at the Assembly.

The four contestants taking part were. Mary Montez, sixth grade; Robert Olsen, seventh grade and Judith Woodard and Edith Davis both eighth graders. The two final spellers Judith Woodard and Edith Davis sparred for the honor of competing with San Mateo schools in the county finals.

Judith Woodard succeeded as the winner and will be accompanied by either Miss Barry, principal or Miss Casanova, eighth grade teacher, to the Taylor Boulevard School in Millbrae on April 7, where the County finals will take place.

A list of more difficult words than those used here at Brisbane school will be sent to be studied. These will be furnished by Miss Pansy J. Abbott, County Superintendent of Schools.

In the event that Judith would not be able to take part Edith Davis the runner-up would take her place.

What Do You Think About the Future of Brisbane?

BUILDING:

This was the question asked of bankers and money investors when the green light was given on building at the termination of the war. The answer to this question was sought when I was contemplating building of a store and apartment building. Their answers were: "Don't do it! No one has ever done anything like this before. It won't pay, you'll go broke!"

In spite of this discouragement, I saw fit to erect the largest and most modern building in Brisbane, housing four new stores and seven apartments, to take care of a long-felt need for the community.

BRANCH BANK FOR BRISBANE:

A survey of business, population, etc., to encourage the Bank of America to establish a branch in Brisbane was made by me. Executives of this banking institution expressed the opinion that they were impressed by the progress of Brisbane and the bank's future action would rest upon development by the Crocker Estate Co.

SAN BRUNO ROAD:

A trip over this once-impossible road will say more than a thousand words. To make this better road possible, I was able to aid in getting the improvement under way and completed. Too much credit cannot be given for the others who worked tirelessly over a long period of time, such as the Brisbane Chamber of Commerce, Brisbane Fire Department, Brisbane Businessmen's Club and others, and County Engineer Grant, who did a swell job.

REGISTERED VOTERS:

During a visit to Redwood City, meeting informally with several of the County Supervisors, the growth of Brisbane was discussed. The Supervisors bluntly expressed the opinion that "the voter registrations did not bear out any appreciable growth." A check on this phase revealed that while Brisbane was growing in population, it was decreasing in registered voters. It is easy to see what bearing this would have if future demands for assistance were made. Registrations were necessary.

I was named to a deputy clerkship and went to work. In less than three weeks, I personally registered close to 400 voters. When one realizes that before this, there were about 900 registered voters, this making almost 33 1/3 increase, you can readily tell what bearing this will have on the future of Brisbane.

TAXES:

As one of Brisbane's largest tax payers, I am vitally interested in seeing that taxes do not spiral upwards. This would be disastrous to all of us. Brisbane needs men in office who will spread their tax dollar wisely; happy to devote time and effort for the improvement of our community.

In conclusion, I am proud to have been selected as a Police Commissioner by the Board of Supervisors who had confidence in my ability. If, after reading the above facts you feel that I would make a good Commissioner, then I ask for your support in the coming election.

"Yours for a Better Brisbane"
